Navigating the Professional Studies M.Ed. and Graduate Certificate Applications

The Apply Yourself application is used for many graduate programs at the University of Minnesota. However, not all sections that appear on the application are required for the Professional Studies M.Ed. or Certificate programs. Priority deadlines are as follows for all programs:

- Spring start: December 15th
- Summer start: April 30th
- Fall start: July 31st

International Students: there may be extra sections you need to complete, look for the highlighted text for more help.

You can also find more information here:

Applicant Statements

Some, but not all, graduate programs may have separate instructions for you to follow in completing the statements below. To check if your program requires you to follow separate instructions, please find the program list available at: https://apps.grad.umn.edu/programs/

Statement #1

Please provide a statement outlining your immediate educational and long-range career objectives in relation to your chosen field. If there is a particular faculty member with whom you wish to study, please give that person's name and explain why you want to study with that person. You may also wish to include other information, such as any undergraduate research experience, internships, or other experiences you may have had to document your preparation for advanced study in your chosen field.

Upload Document e.g. .doc, .pdf, .txt, .xls More

Please note that there is a generic prompt given in the statement upload sites, this application is used for many programs so we can't change this. Please only respond to the prompt on your program's website.

- 7. Program Supplementary Information: upload your resume to the "Résumé or CV" section. It should be tailored to emphasize relevant work and academic experience.
- 8. Recommendation: Very few programs require letters of recommendation; please check your program website to verify if you need a letter of recommendation or not. If you do, your recommendation should be from someone who can speak to your relevant work or academic characteristics. We do not accept paper letters, so you must select "Yes" for the question "Will this provider be submitting the letter of recommendation online?"
- *If for some reason the writer of your letter of recommendation cannot submit your letter online through the application system, please contact your program advisor.
